BOOK SYNOPSIS

Our favorite alien undergrad is back and more conflicted than ever about true love on planet Earth. It doesn't help matters that the extraterrestrial in question, college student Brynn Taylor, was once a Golyte, who by nature is wired to love two men at once. For the Love of Brynn: Book 3: A Fine Line, the third installment of the steamy fantasy romance series by Nancy LeBrun, casts a provocative new light on monogamy, while charting the racy escapades of a pretty coed ensnared in one complex, interspecies love triangle. Mixing love, jealousy, angst, and sex, this latest installment of LeBrun's mind-blowing series explores a love that by human codes is deemed out of bounds, not to mention out of this world. Book three begins with Brynn's affections divided between the human Wes and Gavin, a fellow Golman. Wes finds his emotions reeling out of control after discovering that Brynn never gave up her relationship with Gavin. Not only that, Brynn is now pregnant and doesn't know which of the two is her baby's father. The drama intensifies with the emergence of the powerful Ephagee, the Muldana, who harbors his own desire for Brynn. He quickly maneuvers to use Wes's anger to his advantage, playing one lover against the other in the hopes that one of them will walk away. Brynn, however, is intent on convincing Gavin and Wes to live in the Golyte tradition of sharing her both physically and emotionally, despite living in a world where monogamy is the norm and jealousy abounds on all fronts. When a freak accident lands Wes in the hospital on the Living Ship, Brynn becomes easy prey to the scheming antics of the Muldana. After breaking Golyte law, she finds herself in the courtroom and perilously close to serving prison time, with her fate in the hands of Ephagee. Will she throw herself on the mercy of Ephagee to short circuit a lengthy sentence, even if she must instead be at his beck and call? As her two paramours clash, the overwhelmed Brynn runs away to Virginia Beach. With no car, no license, no money, no clothes, she is on the verge of desperate measures. That's when an unexpected breath of fresh air blows into her life. His name is Ryan. As men and women, humans and aliens, come together and fall apart, For the Love of Brynn: Book 3: A Fine Line offers another scintillating romantic read that boldly wreaks havoc on societal norms, while it gets your blood feverishly pumping.
